Re: Bank of America Home Loan Number ending: 9401
Property Address: 7260 Early Pioneer Avenue, Las Vegas, NV 89129

Dear Mr. LaPorta:

Thank you for contacting our office with your correspondence dated August 03, 2010. The concerns referenced in your correspondence were forwarded to my attention for review and response.

In your letter, you expressed dissatisfaction with various aspects of the origination of the above-referenced loan. You requested Bank of America to provide you with numerous copies of documents relating to the origination of the subject loan and a loan history including fees assessed to the subject loan.

Below, I have provided a summary of the subject loan. Please note that all other requests are declined as they seek documentation that goes beyond that which is available through a Qualified Written Request made under 12 U.S.C. §2605(B).

Signed copies of the available documents pertaining to the origination of the subject loan were mailed August 16, 2010. The signatures on these documents confirm you received, read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions contained within each document. If you had concerns or were not in agreement to the terms and conditions, you were under no obligation to sign the loan documents or continue the loan process.

As you know, Countrywide/Bank of America did not originate the subject loan (please refer to the loan documents provided under separate cover). As the purchaser of a closed loan, Countrywide/Bank of America is not responsible for any misunderstanding or lack of communication between you and the originating entity.

A Loan Transaction History Statement was also mailed to you under separate cover that provides a detailed outline of transactions associated with this loan. Please note that the statement provided pertinent information on payments received, tax and insurance payments disbursed, funds in the suspense/unapplied funds balance, and late fees assessed and paid. The Loan Transaction History Statement is designed to be user-friendly and there are no codes or terms used that require specific definitions. Additionally, our records reflect the subject loan does not have any fees due. Please note that paid late charges will be reported to the IRS as interest paid.

Our records reflect that the subject loan is presently due for the September 2010 installment and has not been referred to foreclosure at this time.

Please refer to the documents mailed under separate cover for details regarding the assessment of late charges, forced placed insurance, inspection fees, interest rate, and interest rate adjustments.
