Dear Mr. LaPorta:

Thank you for filing a complaint with the ACLU of Nevada. A copy of your submission is provided below. We will review and respond to your complaint in the order in which it was received by our office, and it may take as long as 30 to 60 days to review and respond to your complaint. You will receive a response from our office via email unless you specified otherwise on the complaint form.

Please be advised that this is NOT a promise of legal assistance. Please also be advised that there may be deadlines or statutes of limitations that affect your lawsuit or grievance. To protect your rights, you may wish to consult an attorney to find out what deadlines apply in your case. Do not wait to hear from us before proceeding.

The ACLU of Nevada is committed to redressing civil liberties and civil rights violations. Unfortunately, due to limited resources, we cannot take the vast majority of cases that are presented to us, even those concerning serious injustices. If our office does not pursue your complaint, that does not mean it is without merit, and should not dissuade you from pursuing whatever remedies are available to you. Finally, we appreciate you alerting us to social and legal problems in Nevada, as that is vital to our organization's work.

Sincerely,
ACLU of Nevada

He dismissed the case without issuing me a court date to allow me to come into his court room and present the evidence, which precluded me from any oral arguments or presentations to effectively ascertain factual evidence which was concurred by the United States Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Administrator of National Banks which a jury never got to decide upon as requested.
